

Bible Study 4: Celebrating the always resurrection

Do you believe God can do something miraculous?

"Never place a period where God has placed a comma" Grace Allen

Meet with a partner and share a story about a time when something was gone, broken or lost- but it actually wasn't.

Jesus Raises a widows son: Luke 7:11-17

What would it mean for a widow to lose her son?

What in US is Jesus calling to arise?

Are we expecting Jesus to come in and tell us to arise?

Loss is real- but there is always life on the other side. God is faithful in making things new. Jesus will ALWAYS stop for you when you pass him at your worst.

John 21: Place yourself in the story in some capacity. Where do you see yourself?

Blessing- How have you been blessed by each other? How does this community remind you to celebrate? How can you carry that with you?

*affirmation paper

*Write a letter to yourself- What do you want to remind future you of? What did you learn this summer? What did Jesus teach you? How have you learned to see joy?